嘉南薬理大学の概観

台湾嘉南薬理大学との学術交流協定を締結しました。調印式は、安西和紀学部長と嘉南薬理大学の施美芬教授の間で取り交わされました。教員および学生の交流プログラムを通じて、研究や教育の活性化を進めてまいります。

嘉南薬理大学は台湾南部の台南市に立地し、1966年設立の薬学専科学校を前身としています。薬理学部、人間生態学部、人文・応用情報学部、レジャー・健康管理学部、環境学部の5つの学部(計22学科、大学院修士課程)のほか、温泉、生態技術研究開発、文化芸術、レジャー産業研究開発の4つの研究センターを有し、約15,000人の在校生、12万人以上の卒業生を輩出している総合大学です。今後の学術・学生交流を通じ、双方にとって実りある成果が期待できます。

We are honor to announce a new partnership through the academic exchange agreement with Chia Nan University of Pharmacy and Science (CNU) in Taiwan. The signing ceremony was held by Kazunori Anzai Ph.D., Dean of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Nihon Pharmaceutical University, and Mei-Fen Shih Ph.D., Dean of Pharmacy and Science at CNU. According to this agreement, Chia Nan University of Pharmacy and Science (CNU) will deepen the exchange of research and education through the faculty and student exchange programs.

CNU was founded in 1966 as a Chia Nam Junior College. CNU currently offers four-year bachelor's degree programs, two-year senior college programs, and master's degree programs. Courses are offered among the five colleges: The College of Pharmacy and Science, the College of Human Ecology, the College of Humanities and Applied Information, the College of Sustainable Environment and the College of Recreation and Health Management. In addition, they have 23 departments, one cross-disciplinary undergraduate degree program, and one independent graduate institute. CNU is now a leading educator of professionals in the fields of pharmacy, health care, and science, with approximately 15,000 students. More than 120,000 students have graduated from CNU who are currently making their mark in a wide range of professions.

Through academic and student exchanges going forward, we can expect fruitful results for both universities.
